Senior plc Capital Markets Day

Senior plc ("Senior"), an international manufacturer of high-technology components and systems, will today host a Capital Markets Day for analysts and investors. Attendance at the event in person will be invite only and there will be a live webcast which can be accessed at: www.seniorplc.com from 10.30 a.m.

The presentation will set out:

Senior's strategy to maximise shareholder value and how, with recovery in end-markets, the business is well positioned for growth

How Senior's focus on IP-rich fluid conveyance and thermal management technology is the right strategy and will provide increasingly attractive financial returns

Examples of how Senior is providing safe and innovative products for demanding thermal management and fluid conveyance applications across diverse and attractive end markets

How Senior is very well positioned to support and enable the transition to the Low-carbon Economy.

At the Capital Markets Day, Group Chief Executive Officer, David Squires, will be joined by senior leaders from across the business and they will further outline how these factors will allow the Company to deliver on its strategy to maximise shareholder value.

At the Capital Markets Day, David Squires will say:

"As an international, market leading, engineering solutions provider, Senior's purpose is to provide safe and innovative products for demanding fluid conveyance and thermal management applications. With our markets now recovering, we are well positioned for growth which underpins our strategy to maximise shareholder value.

We firmly believe that focusing on our IP-rich fluid conveyance and thermal management technology is the right strategy and will provide increasingly attractive financial returns.

Senior's capabilities are very relevant for our customers today and they are equally relevant as the world transitions to a low-carbon economy. We are ready and will grasp all the opportunities that change brings, but in the meantime our focus will remain on building a high-performance business to create value for all of our stakeholders."
